

Biography

Susana Mederer Hengstl has worked as a Neurologist at the University Hospital Complex of Pontevedra since 1993. There she has held the positions of Head of Service (2001-2013) and Section Head (2014-present).

She did her medical residency at the University Hospital Vall d'Hebron in Barcelona, after graduating with honors from the Medical School of Granada. In 1992 she worked as a consultant neurologist at the Catalan Down Syndrome Foundation.

She has taught numerous seminars and presented at many conferences. Additionally, she often collaborates with the Medical School of Santiago de Compostela.