

Hossein Ansari, MD , FAAN , FAHS - Biography

- Dr. Ansari is board certified neurologist by “American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology (ABPN). He also completed fellowship in “Headache and Facial pain” in Mayo Clinic, Rochester, MN and received board certified on Headache medicine by “United Council of Neurological Subspecialty” (UCNS).
- Dr Ansari developed a multidisciplinary Headache clinic at Neurology and neuroscience associates (NNA) in Akron, Ohio, where he serves as medical director of the headache clinic till 2015.
- In 2015 he moved to San Diego to start Headache and facial pain clinic for university of California, San Diego (UCSD) where he serves as director of headache clinic. He advance to associate professor of Neuroscience at UCSD and currently continued his teaching carrier at UCSD.
- He is also honorary visiting professor of neurology at Tehran University of Medical Sciences (TUMS) and international Liaison for Iranian Headache Association which works under the auspice of International Headache Society (IHS) since 2015.
- In July 2020, Dr. Ansari joined Kaizen Brain Center to develop a Headache Clinic and Facial pain clinic plus expand the concussion and traumatic brain injury (TBI) program and conduct clinical trials.
- Dr. Ansari is consultant and advisor for multiple pharmaceutical companies which are working to develop treatment for facial pain or headache.
- His specialist interest are interventional and procedural treatment of headache, Facial pain with focus on autoimmune trigeminal neuropathy, trigeminal neuralgia, neuro-rheumatology and neuro-pharmacology.
- Dr. Ansari is actively involved in multiple domestic and international professional societies specifically International Headache Society (IHS) and American Interventional Headache Society (AIHS) . He presented in numerous national and international conferences.